Other federal agencies take part in Council activities, including the Departments of Agriculture, Defense, Interior, and the Substance and Mental Health Services Administration of HHS.

MEETING AGENDA: At this meeting, the Council will be joined by the Advisory Committee of the Attorney General’s Task Force on American Indian and Alaska Native (AIAN) Children Exposed to Violence. The Attorney General's Task Force on AIAN Children Exposed to Violence is anchored by an Advisory Committee consisting of non-federal experts in the area of AIAN children exposed to violence and a Federal Working Group consisting of federal experts working in areas related to AIAN children exposed to violence. The Advisory Committee acts in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act as amended, 5 U.S.C. Appendix 2; and is charged specifically with investigating the issues of AIAN children exposed to violence in their homes, schools, and communities. To this end, the committee convened four public hearings across the country to collect information with the primary goal of developing policy and practice recommendations to be included in their final report to the Attorney General.

In summary, the agenda will include: (a) Welcome and introductions; (b) Presentations and discussion of the findings and recommendations of the Advisory Committee of the Attorney General's Task Force on American Indian and Alaska Native (AIAN) Children Exposed to Violence; and (c) and Agency/Practitioner Member announcements of pertinent programs and activities.
